POETRY COMPETITION

Help to commemorate the 100th year anniversary of the Gallipoli landing by entering the ANZAC poetry competition!

Write an ANZAC poem using one of the following images from the Australian War Memorial site as inspiration. The poem must be between 15-20 lines.

Submit your original ANZAC poem to Miss Jones in the English Faculty by Thursday April 2nd.
Scene behind frontline at Anzac, Ottoman Empire: Turkey, Dardanelles, Gallipoli, Anzac Area (Gallipoli).

Anzac Area, Gallipoli. 1915. Two Anzac Corps soldiers resting in a communications trench on the right flank of the force.

Gallipoli, Turkey. 25 April 1915. The first field dressing station of the 7th Battalion, AIF.

25 April 1915. A boatload of 6th Battalion soldiers leaving the transport ship HMT Galeka on their way to land at Anzac Cove.